Dear Raul:

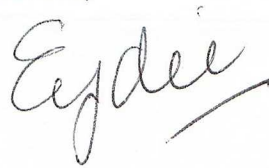

On behalf of the trustees of the PR Foundation of Houston, I thank you for contributing dance lessons to our June 17, 2010, silent auction. Your support helped us raise more than $4,200 for our scholarship fund. The PRFH annually awards one of the largest PR scholarships offered by any PRSA chapter in the United States.

This past spring the PR Foundation of Houston awarded its fifth scholarship. Our success is made possible through the generous contributions we receive through this silent auction that is held in conjunction with the Public Relations Society of America/Houston Chapter's Excalibur Awards dinner.

As an auction participant, your donation is currently recognized via stories about the auction on the Chapter's Web site (www.prsahouston.org/foundation). It was also acknowledged during the well-attended Excalibur awards dinner via the program.

Thank you again for making a donation that will benefit students studying PR and communications for years to come. We hope you'll participate again next year!

Cheers,

Eydie Pengelly, APR
2010 President and Treasurer

The PRFH's mission is to enhance the quality of education by creating a permanent educational endowment that provides scholarships for students studying communications and/or public relations at Sam Houston State University, Texas A&M University and the University of Houston.
